

PALMA AND GUERRA NOW NEGOTIATE.

The Cuban Government Decides on Armistice, While Insurgent Forces Move Nearer Pinar del Rio—Liberals Demand Annulment of Elections.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

HAVANA, Sept. 7.—All peace overtures are blocked by the refusal of Pino Guerra, the insurgent leader in Pinar del Rio province, to enter into any arrangement for an armistice. Guerra's answer to the government's announcement of its offer to grant a ten-day armistice is the blowing up of two bridges on the Western Railway, the cutting of every communication beyond Pinar del Rio and an attack on San Juan de Martinez.

HAVANA, Sept. 7.—An official armistice for ten days has been declared by the government. The armistice will be conducted under the regular war regulations. Pino Guerra, it became known late today, has formally notified the government that he will not accept the armistice unless the government promises to annul the election of December last, in spite of this decision of the insurgent commander, another committee is going to Pinar del Rio tomorrow in an endeavor to persuade Guerra to come to Havana to make peace.

The insurgent forces commanded by Gen. Llorens Castillo have been seriously wounded on the forehead by an insurgent bullet, who struck him with a mace as the general had drawn the insurgent officer with the tip of his sword.

Late this afternoon it was announced that the liberal leaders, who are in the city of Pinar del Rio, Gen. Menocal, it is stated, will probably visit Guerra personally and confer with him regarding peace terms.

This image shows a dark, textured vertical band, likely a book cover or endpaper. The material appears to be a dark, possibly black, fabric or paper with a fine, vertical ribbed texture. There are numerous small, light-colored specks and fibers visible throughout the material, giving it a grainy appearance. The lighting is somewhat uneven, with a slightly brighter area towards the left side, creating a subtle gradient. The overall tone is very dark, almost black, with some variations in the texture and color due to the material's properties and the way it was scanned.

NATION'S CHIEF AS AN ISSUE.

Bonaparte Accepts Democratic Challenge.

Thinks Country Will Elect a Helpful Congress.

Gompers Buys in Defense of His Citizenship.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fresh from a conference with the President on the Mayflower at Oyster Bay, Secretary of the Interior Charles J. Bonaparte, in a statement given out this afternoon, announced that the Republicans will endeavor to make the paramount issue in the forthcoming Congress elections.

It is in brief: "Will the country stand by the President?"

Bonaparte, while professing to speak only for himself, also strongly intimated that there would be no tariff revision leading toward free trade by the next Congress.

Secretary Bonaparte's statement was called forth by a request for an expression of opinion on the recent interview with Senator Rayner of Maryland. In that interview, Rayner assailed the President's policy and declared that "executive usurpation" would be the leading issue of the next two years the misleading of plutocrats and trust magnates will be remedied under the guidance of Theodore Roosevelt, or will not be removed at all.

PROTECTION VS. DISSECTION.

"There is room, as there has always been, for an honest difference of opinion as to the relative merits of protection and free trade, but no one in his senses believes and no one who tells the truth pretends to believe that the next Congress can or will induce free trade or revise the tariff with any leaning toward free trade."

"The real question which the American people must answer at the polls in November is this: 'Will we give the President a mandate to accept approval or disapproval of the President as an issue for this autumn's campaign. I think it is a true and practical issue, and that any other is either pretended or merely an academic issue at this time."

"There is room for public by Democrats about plutocracy and trusts, but every sensible and well-informed man knows, and every honest and truthful man knows that during the next two years the misleading of plutocrats and trust magnates will be remedied under the guidance of Theodore Roosevelt, or will not be removed at all."

GOULD'S MAN GOING WEST WITH PARTY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DENVER, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The presence in Colorado of J. H. Clements, right-hand man, financially, of George Gould, and his announced intention of going to Portland, Ore., is believed to mean that preparations are being made for a branch line of the Western Pacific from some point in Nevada northward through the Willamette Valley into Portland.

It is known that this project has received serious consideration, and probably it will be a sequel of the building of the Western Pacific.

Clements and a party of Rio Grande officials went East yesterday. The latter will accompany him as far as Salt Lake City.

NEW OVERLAND ROUTE.

GOULD'S TEXAS LINK.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

FORT WORTH (Tex.) Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Facts leaked out last night which tend to confirm the rumor that the Goulds have on foot a scheme to extend the Mineral Wells and Northwestern Railway northward across northwestern Texas and New Mexico to connect with the Denver and Rio Grande Railway at its southwestern terminus in Mexico, and thus form a new transcontinental route, shortening the distance by several hundred miles and avoiding the present roundabout journey via the Texas and Pacific and El Paso.

One surveying party to locate the new extension started out in a northwesterly direction six weeks ago from Mineral Wells, Tex., and another party started at the same time from Roswell, N. M., in a southerly direction.

The intention and destination of the surveyors was kept secret, but Vice-President and General Manager Brock of the Mineral Wells and Northwestern Railway, who is here tonight, admits that the surveyors are staking out the new route between Mineral Wells and Mount Blanco country of Texas.

RATES NOT TOO HIGH.

PRESIDENT STICKNEY'S OPINION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—President Stickney of the Chicago Great Western differs radically from most high railroad officials on most phases of the rate question, but he stands with them in contending that there should be no general reduction of rates. Stickney was in Chicago yesterday, having come here to attend the Great Western's annual meeting.

"I don't think railroad rates on the average are too high in the United States," said Stickney. "What is needed is not a horizontal reduction, but a reduction of the rates on the lines which are overpaid."

Charges about the same per ton per mile as the Great Western, although the density of its traffic is much greater. Probably our rates are too low, while the Pennsylvania's are too high.

"We are making money at the present rates, but should the country become less prosperous, there is no certainty that we could continue to do so. Rates generally in the Northwest are too low, compared with those in the East."

This annual meeting of the Great Western was the fourteenth.

EMPLOYEES' CONDITION BETTER.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 7.—The Grievance Committee of the various railway employees' organizations have been treating with the officials of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and other roads entering the Twin Cities in succession the carmen, boiler-makers, blacksmiths and machinists' committees have held several conferences with the railway officials.

In general the demands made by the employees upon the railroads have been better working conditions, with an increase in wages. It is said that the demands have been acceded to. It is said that the machinists were ready to strike at a moment's notice unless they shared the good fortune of the other organizations.

On Monday next the committees of the operators on the Omaha and Chicago, Great Western roads will convene, and it is expected that a small increase will be granted them.

Operators in the East have been accorded increases and those employed on the western roads hope that the western roads will follow.

PUBLIC FUNDS FOR LOCAL USE.

Secretary Shaw's Instructions to Depository Banks.

Money Should Not Be Diverted for Speculation.

Government Intervention in Arid Land's Behalf.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Secretary Shaw has made public a circular letter, dated today, to all national bank depositories, in which he says, in effect, that he expects public moneys in the depositories where it is deposited, and not loaned through brokers and other agents in New York for speculative purposes.

The letter is as follows: "I am advised that many banks scattered throughout the country are loaning their surplus funds through brokers and others in New York on call at high rates of interest. Money loaned on call is well-nigh universally used for speculative purposes. I recognize the right of any individual to speculate in stocks or in lands, or in the legal right of any bank to loan money at appropriate rates of interest, at home or abroad, on ample security, even with the knowledge that it is being used for speculative purposes."

"I am not willing, however, that government money shall be enticed away from the locality where it has been deposited for the purpose of being used in this way. Public deposits are made in aid of legitimate business, and should be kept in the hands of the depository banks, and not loaned to speculators. The government is not a party to such speculation, and it is not its duty to protect the public moneys in making call loans at high rates."

"If you have more money than your community can appropriately absorb, please return it to the treasury, for it can be promptly placed where it will do much good. This does not apply to banks with large reserves regularly on deposit with city correspondents."

BOSTON BANK'S FOREIGN GOLD.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
BOSTON, Sept. 7.—The National Shawmut Bank of this city has engaged $1,000,000 in gold coin for import from London. The transaction is based upon the conditions arranged by Secretary Shaw a few days ago, in an effort to relieve the money market.

SURPRISE IN NEW YORK.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Secretary Shaw's letter on the use of public money for speculative purposes created a great deal of surprise in banking circles in this city, where it was believed that a good deal of the money deposited in the government banks in this city would be loaned to speculators.

Call on the other hand, attacks the validity of this title, declaring that it was granted before the government was a citizen of the United States, and while the property in question was a part of the public domain.

The extreme activity of the Southern Pacific to secure control of this particular strip of right of way along the Santa Monica, Fallides is taken by those on the inside to indicate its fear of the Ring road. And it is also believed that the government is pushing through under cover of the name of the Ring estate, and that it is in reality backed by more powerful transportation interests.

Hill Scores Over Harriman.

SEATTLE, Sept. 7.—The application of the Columbia Valley Railroad to the Seattle and Tacoma Railway Company, a Hill road, for a right of way through the Ring estate, which the Columbia River in extension to Portland, was denied yesterday by Judge Hanford in the Federal Court. The application was dismissed. Harriman claims title to the right of way, while Hill is in possession. Judge Hanford says the dispute is merely one of title and must be settled in a court of equity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The suggestion has been made to the Navy Department that if arrangements could be made with railroad companies to carry the mail, the navy at half fare or reduced rates, it would be of great benefit to the service, and would cause the enlistment of more men from the inland towns, who are now compelled to pay the full fare out of their own pockets when they wish to see their home folks. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ROME, Sept. 7.—Although the quadrum of the Congregation of the Company of Jesus, preparatory to the election of a general or the order in succession to the late Father Martin, closed today, the delegates remain in seclusion, not wishing to come into contact with external affairs until after the election, which will occur tomorrow.

ESCAPES OLD MURDER CHARGE.

Witnesses Fail to Identify Man Accused of Crime Committed Thirty-seven Years Ago.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
FORT WORTH (Tex.) Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Newton Bohannon, in the District Court at Bonham, has been acquitted of a charge of murder alleged to have been committed in Fannin county, thirty-seven years ago.

A man by the name of Echols was killed near Bohannon's home, March 1, 1875, by being pulled from his horse and his throat cut from ear to ear. Bohannon, who was known as the murderer of Echols, the day before, fled from the country and although pursued was never captured.

Some time ago he quarreled with his wife and divorce followed. In the division of the property there was more trouble and the wife informed officers that Bohannon was the murderer of Echols. After the lapse of years witnesses were unable to identify the accused man and he was promptly acquitted.

STRIKES STRIKERS.

WILL TAKE NO DICTATION.

"In reply to information you have given me that certain members of your union desire to work with the men now in my employ, I cannot make too clear my unalterable position, that I will not discharge any man who faithfully and efficiently performs his services to make place for some one else; and I certainly will not do this at the dictation of any one or any union."

"Under my instructions, however, the fact that no one employed during the strike will be discharged will not in any way effect the hours or wages of the class of labor that the former men returning to work would have, nor will they in any way be discriminated against after their return."

"I understand that there are only twenty men affected by the question you have now brought up, and I trust you will find some way to avoid further differences between us." (Signed) "PATRICK CALHOUN, President United Railroads of San Francisco."

In discussing the issue of the day, President Calhoun said to a Times reporter:

COERCES NO ONE.

"Three years ago the United Railroads at my positive insistence, refused to agree to the closed shop. My union was then and is now absolutely unalterable. I will never be a party to an action to coerce any free American citizen to join any organization. It is the privilege of my employee to join a union if they see fit, but if they have no desire to do so, the whole power and entire wealth of the corporation is at their disposal to secure for them protection in performance of their duties."

CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTY.

"I regard the right of a man to work where and as he pleases as an inalienable right of American citizenship—a right that cannot be hampered or restricted without destroying individual liberty. I am not opposed to coercion of men for social or labor reasons, and any reputable organization or aggregation of men amongst among my employees may use any means to find the door swinging. I believe more than I do in the development of the workingman's ability to bring him up to the high level of his responsibilities in the performance of his obligations."

"The union can thrive that does its duty to its obligations, both as an organization and as individuals. I am not on a basis of force, but force, a union attempts to coerce, it is not only violates the Constitution, but it threatens with destruction that pays the wages."

NEW CAME THE YOK.

"It was in the secret of the conference placed the yoke of unionism on San Francisco, Calhoun said. The condition is largely due to the fact that San Francisco, in its recent development, has for years been hampered by a shortage in the supply. This shortage has enabled the organizations to dictate to the city and get a stranglehold on its industries."

They have depend for their final success on the commerce of this city for the reason that that commerce is the basis of the city's development."

long as the cost of labor, plus the cost of the city's commerce, can be carried on here at a little less elsewhere, San Francisco will grow with startling rapidity. The unionism forces prices below the point, San Francisco will be able to grow, and will be able to struggle on, crippled and hampered."

The city has wonderful natural resources. The unions, by their rapidly discounting these, result that if conditions continue, the unions will have killed the city that laid the golden egg."

ditions of San Francisco will be a little in their mad race for power, and consider these things, and consider, and they must consider."

ALMOUN AT BANQUET.

AL'S HOSTS CHEER HIM.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) One of the best evidence of the conservative citizens of San Francisco is the hearty backing of the city against the high-toned unionism was a demonstration of the Southern Pacific, at the Union Club.

around the board were business men of the number several hundred. The day came directly in connection with the problem of organized labor for years to find a leader who could check the dominating unionism. With the keenest of the principles of industry, and at a banquet of his winning fight. As the banquet hall, the cheering into a storm of cheering.

became the vortex of a rush of congratulations, and the men from the table to shake their heads. An effort was made to place the new unionism and vicious force of a speech forced a stirring of him.

representatives of the affiliated organizations and W. P. McCabe, secretary of the Labor Council, are tonight considering the reply of President Calhoun.

The Chronicle today says:

"Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, will resign from that office within the next two weeks, and Thorneville Mullaly, now acting as assistant to the president, will be elected to the office of president by the board of directors."

"Although this has not been officially announced, it is not denied by the officials of the United Railroads. Patrick Calhoun has interests all over the United States, and the San Francisco system does not comprise one-third of his interests. As president of the United Railroads Investment Company, he has charge of the United Railroads of Pittsburgh lines in Cleveland and in some of the important cities of the South. To oversee this tremendous system takes a great deal of time, and as San Francisco is somewhat removed from the field of operations, he has determined to turn over the guidance of the local system to Thorneville Mullaly, who has had practical charge of it since last February."

"Although Calhoun will step down from the office of president, he will still be a member of the board of directors, and will have a big interest in the affairs of the company."

NEW YORK DUBITS IT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) They said they had received no word from Calhoun on the subject.

SEATTLE ESCAPES A UNION.

ORGANIZERS PETER OUT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SEATTLE (Washington), Sept. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Edward McMorow, organizer and vice-president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of America, and Assistant W. G. Burton have left Seattle, giving up the attempt to organize the street-car men of the city into a union, making a fizzle of the raid planned on the Seattle Electric Company by the Municipal Ownership Party. The plan was to tie up the street railway lines of the city with a strike on the eve of the bond-issue election, next Wednesday.

McMorow left for his home in Detroit, saying that he washed his hands of Seattle street-car men. "They are too weak and cowardly to come forward, and the day will come when I'll show them a thing or two, for I'll make this a 'scab' town," he said.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

MEXICO (Mo.) Sept. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Mr. and Mrs. Norton Melton, married on Wednesday evening in this city, spent the first night of their honeymoon in a cell in the County Jail. They were released early Thursday morning.

The couple had done nothing more than try to outwit their friends waiting them at their new home, and spent the night at the jail, where Mrs. Melton's uncle, Price Johnson, is Sheriff. In order to keep the young folks completely in the dark.

After the wedding the young couple entered a carriage, ostensibly to go to the station, but in reality to drive to their newly furnished cottage on East Jackson street.

It was when the crowd went to the station and then to the cottage that the couple fled to the jail.

plenty of comfortable tents provide shade and rest for the shooters when not in action before the traps. The birds were overhauled carefully yesterday morning and the traps readjusted to throw them fifty yards as a limit, and not over nine feet elevation. These are rather easier birds than have been the rule in Southern California, and it now looks somewhat as if the much expected opportunity to compare the best of the Coast cracks with the easterners on "California birds" was to be lost. Those who saw Crosby drilling "oh out yesterday will be willing to string them behind him, however, if the birds fly a thousand yards.

Franklin's gun was in evidence yesterday. W. A. Halls had a single-barreled affair invented by a man named Young, and resembling a sort of cross between a good hammerless double-barrel and a Winchester pump, with a smattering of Browning automatic thrown in. The thing breaks in the middle and carried two shells. It looks neat enough and seems to be effective.

HEIKES ON DECK.
Daddy Heikes was there with both feet yesterday, and using one of the Hemington people's editions of the Browning patent—a murderous magazine automatic affair of the squirrelgun order, shooting as fast as one can pull the trigger and apparently hitting 'em hard, too. In the hands of a shot like Heikes a muzzle-loading gun ought to be a piece of cake. He has a range of six shells to experiment upon, and ought to be able to gauge the lead to a nicety after a few shots.

FLYNN IS EN ROUTE.
Candidate for Burns's Shoes and Belt Leaves Pueblo for the Angel City.
Jim Flynn, the Colorado aspirant for the heavyweight championship of the world, will leave Pueblo today for this city, where he is to meet Tommy Burns, the holder of the world's championship, September 23, under the auspices of the Pacific Athletic Club. The club has forwarded Flynn, his ticket, and as soon as the big man arrives final papers will be drawn up between the two fighters.

ATTACK FARLEY'S BUREAU.
REJECTED MEN ANGRY.
NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Disappointed men placed an agent of James Farley, the professional strike-breaker, in a disagreeable position, in his temporary bureau in Eighth avenue, this morning. About fifty men who had been engaged to go to San Francisco to break a strike of street car men, went to the bureau with their kits. They were the rear guard of 300 motor men, conductors and linemen forwarded to the Golden Gate.

"BAT" NELSON REALLY LUCKY.
BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Batting Nelson lost the championship at Goldfield he also lost a bride. Miss Blanch Savoy, a Chicago actress, came all the way from Chicago to see her lover defeat Gans and her voice from the ringside all through the long fight called words of cheer to Nelson. It was intended that their wedding should take place soon after the fight. After the contest she did not stay to console with Nelson and next day left Goldfield. There will be no wedding.

BURNS TO FIGHT FLYNN.
McCarrey Passes Up Al Kaufmann and Signs Heavyweight Contest for End of September.
Manager McCarrey passed up Welcher Al Kaufmann yesterday and will sign Tommy Burns and Jim Flynn of Pueblo, Colo., for a match September 23. Flynn will probably arrive here today or tomorrow. There was a delay of about three weeks while McCarrey was waiting for Kaufmann to do something or even send word that he didn't intend to, but no message could be received from him, either directly or indirectly. He is supposed to be hanging around Philadelphia somewhere, doing a turn in some cheap theater and evidently never had any intention of fighting Burns. There will certainly be nothing more doing here for him in the fight line.

GOLF FINALS TODAY.
Sawyer and Wood to Contest in the Match to Decide Western Golf Championship.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 7.—D. E. Sawyer, Wheaton, Chicago, and W. K. Wood, Homewood, Chicago, will contest for the amateur championship of the Western Golf Association on the Glen Echo links tomorrow. The day's programme consisted of a third round in the morning and semi-finals in the afternoon, both at 11 holes. The morning brought many disappointments. The defeat of W. C. Fownes, Jr., was expected by few. He was considered to have an excellent chance to annex the western championship. Dr. Frederick, however, disposed of him rather easily. The biggest disappointment of the day for local enthusiasts was when Richard Kimball, the young Boston golfer, who lately won the Glen Echo Club of this city, was defeated by Sprague Abbott of the Omaha C.C., 1 up in 19 holes. At the fifteenth hole Kimball topped into the water hazard, and a boy, who happened to be near by not caddy for either player, held the ball steady while Kimball stepped in and played the ball out of the water. Until the protest of Abbott was decided by the managers of the tournament it went out as a halved hole, but when he held out at the last green they announced that all outside of the match had been rendered and gave Abbott the hole. On the extra hole Kimball sliced badly, Abbott winning 4 to 2.

Is This Possible?

A rumor was current around town yesterday that Oscar Chavez, the manager of the Moran team of the Southern California League had been offered a place of assistant manager for the Los Angeles team next season. He said so himself last night but added that no action had been taken on the proposition.

Mayflower Descendants in Plymouth, at Banquet, Upheld the Pilgrim Fathers.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

PLYMOUTH (Mass.), Sept. 7.—The general address by former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long, in which he discussed the Pilgrim Fathers, was the subject of critical comment on the part of nearly all the attendants at the banquet of the general society of the Mayflower descendants last night.

THE KILLING AT LODGE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Hotel-keepers of this city, who were defrauded last month by the "smooth stranger" out of bills for board, lodging and carriage hire, to say nothing of the cash paid to him on worthless checks, doubt if he really is dead.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 7.—Today's session of the tuberculosis congress was greatly taken by the suggestions regarding the means of organizing popular sanatoria. Dr. Lawrence Flick of Philadelphia urged the foundation of dispensaries, as powerful means of collaboration between doctors and the public for the purpose of fighting the scourge of consumption.

PRAY BEFORE SAINTS' ARM.

ROME, Sept. 7.—This being the last day of the quadrivium preparatory to the election of a general of the congregation of the company of Jesus, tomorrow, additional prayers were offered up by the delegates in their quarters in their college and special prayers were also said in all the Jesuit churches.

WARSAW, Sept. 7.—An inmate of the asylum for the insane at Cora Kal Wari, about thirty miles from here, secured an ax yesterday, and, although he had previously been inoffensive, ran amuck through the institution and killed seven of his fellow inmates before he was overpowered.

For a lover of nature there is a great diversity of scene.

The tremendous canyon itself, the Little Colorado, the Cataract, the Coconino Forest, the North Rim and its wilderness—

50 Years In Favor

A product that grows in favor, year after year, for over fifty years must possess unusual merit.

That's the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate. Time after time, the capacity of the plant has been increased to keep pace with the growing demand, in spite of sharp competition and frequent imitations.

Try one can and you'll understand why. You'll appreciate the delicate flavor and satisfying goodness.

Ask your grocer for it.
Be sure that you get it.

VICTIM SEES HIS COFFIN BOUGHT.

PORTLAND WOMAN PLOTTED TO MURDER HUSBAND.

Unsuspecting Spouse Accompanies
Would-Be Murderess to Undertaker's and Hears Arrangements Made for Funeral—Razor and Revolver Fail Her and She Goes to Asylum.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORTLAND, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Inducing her husband to accompany her to a local undertaking establishment, Mrs. George H. Con-radt, who subsequently made two successful attempts to murder her husband, bargained for and bought his coffin and made arrangements for his funeral, to take place within two days, while he sat, chess board, wholly unconscious of the purpose of her visit.
Mrs. Conradt cleverly led the undertaker to believe that she was arranging for the funeral of a relative, whose recovery was impossible.
The true state of affairs was realized today, when it was learned that Mrs. Conradt had tried to take the life of her husband last night by firing at him with a revolver.
She was disarmed, taken into custody and today was ordered committed to the insane asylum.
Yesterday morning Mrs. Conradt slashed her husband in the face with a razor, attempting to murder him while he slept.

GOLDFIELD (Nev.) Sept. 7.—Mike
Kierman, a miner, was shot and fatally wounded on the outskirts of Goldfield this morning and died at the County Hospital tonight.
Kierman refused to give the name of his assailant. He declared it was his own fault and that he was holding up the man who shot him, believing that he was a high grader and had rich ore on his person. Later, he told a different story and neither story is believed, but he protected his assailant up to the last although he declared that he knew his name.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 8, 1906.

HANDSOME HOTEL WENTWORTH THAT'S TO GRACE OAK KNOLL.

CHAS. J. WHITLEY & CO. ARCHITECTS

Front view of the immense structure, on which work has been begun. At the left is the main floor plan.

THE HOTEL WENTWORTH, construction of which has been begun on Oak Knoll, Pasadena, will be a stupendous and hand some structure, remarkable in many ways. An adequate conception of its beauty and magnitude may be gained from the accompanying perspective and main-floor plan, here published for the first time.

The building is situated on the brow of a hill overlooking the San Gabriel Valley, with a magnificent vista to the Sierra Madre Mountains. The snow-capped peaks of Old Baldy and Mt. Wilson are plainly visible, and will form a pleasing contrast to the sun-kissed slopes of the valley, with their orchards and verdant orange trees.

The grounds of the hotel contain a great variety of shade trees, among them some of the finest oaks in the vicinity. The lines of the building have been made to conform with those of nature and none of the forest leviathans have been sacrificed to make room for the walls.

The building is to be completed in time for next season's business. An army of workmen, more than 800 in number, is employed at the present time, and next month will see 1000 men at work on the structure.

It is constructed throughout of reinforced concrete. Walls, floors, partitions and roofs are being built of this material. This form of construction makes it possible to finish and decorate the rooms in the lower stories before the upper stories are built. No hotel in the world will be more nearly fireproof than this.

The architecture is of the mission type, carried out with a purity of style and with the careful and conscientious attention to detail which the architect for this building has developed in some of the other large hotels of the West of which the Alvarado, at Alhambra, N. M., the Cardenas at Trinidad, and the Tovar at Grand Cañon are examples.

WILL BE HOME LIKE.

All ostentation and appearance of commercialism will be avoided, while the interior decorations will be as rich and elegant as wealth can provide and good taste dictate. The purpose of the designer is to express the repose and homelike feeling so essential to the success of a resort hotel.

The main building, across the front, will be six stories in height; in the center a massive tower, fifty feet square, surmounted by four square turrets, will rise to a height of nine stories. On the highest floor to which the elevator runs, there will be one of the original features of the building, a climatorium with a roof garden above.

Two of the turrets will contain the massive water tanks which will supply the hotel with water, the third will contain the private "den" of Gen. Wentworth, and the fourth will house a beautiful chime of bells whose soft, melodious notes will be heard over the valley in the soft twilight of the evening.

From each end of the main building a four-story wing extends obliquely toward the front corners, each surmounted by a roof garden and a prominent. The ends of the wings will be carried up into towers one story higher. The result of this arrangement is a large number of corner suites with commanding views of the valley and the mountains. The entire roof of the hotel will be covered with red tile of the mission pattern.

The buildings to the rear, which are grouped about the large, quadrangular patio, are of broken outline, lending a picturesque charm to the entire group. Viewed from any point the great pile will present a castle effect suggestive of a citadel or an old Spanish hacienda on a large scale. The auto busses from the railroad station will enter the grounds by a broad avenue, winding under eucalyptus trees through an archway, and, emerging around the fountain in the patio, will deliver the loads of guests at the hotel door.

At the outer entrance to the patio the guests will be struck with the fact that the roughness of the surface of the forest dating back to the time of the padres. In order that the illusion may be more faithfully carried out, the roughness of the surface of the concrete walls of the building will be stained a weather-beaten color to give it the appearance of great age.

To the right of the patio is the dining-room with high vaulted ceiling, capable of seating 600 guests. Though the arched sides of this room open into the dining-room, which flank it, while grouped about it are private dining-rooms, banquet-rooms, children's dining-room and buffet, all served from the same kitchen. To the rear of the main dining-room is the great serving-room, the ceiling of which is of such height as to admit of windows overlooking the roofs of the adjoining buildings, the pantries, kitchen, storerooms, bakery and pastry establishment. One feature of the dining-room service is the sitting-room for waitresses, of which there will be such a number that each will have but four guests to care for.

To the rear of the storeroom is the kitchen courtyard, enclosed by the buildings of the working department, including fuel storerooms and laundry. This courtyard is entered by an arched gateway and is entirely screened from all parts of the hotel grounds.

The buildings in the rear, ending in a point, comprise a two-story dormitory building for the servants, including servants' dining-room, kitchen, pantries, sitting-room, library and a large ballroom equipped with a stage and scenery for the exclusive use of the hotel servants, of which there will be about 350.

On the side of the patio opposite the dining-room is a large ballroom with alcoved niches on each side, richly decorated and upholstered in velvet.

BARBOUR SAYS BACK TO PAY.

Promoter Who Skipped Now Returns Home.

He's Been Having a Good Time in Mexico.

Prodigal Asserts He Will Settle in Full.

The prodigal has returned. There was a happy and cheerful ring in the voice of Henry P. Barbour last night as he sat in the "den" of his beautiful home in Long Beach and told a reporter for The Times of his "vacation" in Lower California and his present plans. Barbour has aged considerably since the last time he was in Los Angeles, but he asserts that he never was in better health. He is browned and burned by the Mexican sun.

"And that is no wonder," exclaimed Barbour, "for I have ridden and hunted and shot and led an outdoor life during the first vacation I have had for six years."

Barbour asserts that he returns to Los Angeles to settle with his creditors dollar for dollar.

"There has been a great deal of misinformation printed and I have been very much amused. There is only one thing like Bryan's 16 to 1—and that is why I was not made to give $4,000,000 in the highest terms of President Diaz and the highest terms of President Diaz and the highest terms of President Diaz."

"My, what stories have been told of the palaces I was going to build in Mexico. Why, this is the country of the palaces, and the people to put into them. I have only just got home and have not even seen or talked with my attorney yet, but what I saw of Los Angeles as I passed through shows me in what a surprising manner that city is growing. Why, it has grown more in the last six months than the whole State in Mexico will in six years. It is wonderful."

FIRST CARE TO PAY, HE SAYS.

"Yes, it is my intention now to devote myself to gathering my assets and, if necessary, realizing upon all I have to pay my debts."

"I may be optimistic; I may be a little conceited, but I have absolute faith in my ability to make money. My first care will be to pay every dollar I owe, then if I have to start all over again, I will do so."

Barbour spoke at some length of Mexico and Lower California. He was certain of the awakening which is taking place in those countries, and spoke in the highest terms of President Diaz and of Gov. La Vega of Lower California, who wishes to open up that country as a capital and is a most progressive man.

He told of the colony of Russians, known as Molokans, near Guadalupe, but did not think them desirable citizens.

"They are good plodding farmers, but they are a law unto themselves, and very clannish. They are cruel and quick-tempered. Among the horses on their big ranch there are at least twenty-five who have had their eyes gouged out by these men when they were angry."

It would be almost sacrilege to tell of the happiness which shone from the face and eyes of Mrs. Barbour as she hovered around the man she has so thoroughly proved her devotion to and belief in. But her faith that he would return has been a true faith.

"What plans have you for the future?" was asked.

"Plans? Well, I have some plans—some big ones. This is the country for big plans. But it is too early to say now about them. What I must do first is to get my debts paid off—to settle with my creditors—then I will be time enough to talk of my plans."

RISES LIKE A TROUT.

At the very idea of new and gigantic schemes, Mr. Barbour seemed to flash up. He rose to the thought of big operations as a trout does to a fly, only in this case the trout catches the fisherman.

"There may be opportunities in Mexico," continued Barbour, "but it is right here in Los Angeles that the real opportunity is today. There is no place in the world, I believe, where there is such genuine opportunity as right here in this country."

Then once again Barbour harped upon his intention to pay his debts first and then to begin life over again, confident that he will be able to roll up more wealth in other schemes. He spoke of his flight from Los Angeles as simply taking a vacation and upon the advice of his attorney.

"It was thought better that I should leave for a time, until my affairs could be straightened out, and I did so."

HENRY P. BARBOUR, who says he has come back to pay every cent he owes.

MOTORCYCLES TO CATCH BURGLARS

POLICE DEPARTMENT INSTALLS WINGED MESSENGERS.

Hurry-up Calls Will Be Answered in Future by Mercurial Bluecoats. Patrol Wagon Makes Too Much Noise to Be of Value in Effecting Captures.

For swift answer of emergency calls the Los Angeles police department has introduced an innovation. After this week wagon and office men will be trained to motorcycle riding. Two motorcycles will be kept at the central station in readiness for instant use. Telephone messages demanding quick presence of an officer will get it.

Burglaries, where the burglar is known to be in the house; highway robberies, murders and the presence of fleeing criminals are cases to the point. Such reports as these are reasonably frequent at the central station. As a rule they come at night. They demand immediate attention.

Answer by the patrol wagon has often proved next door to useless. Several reasons for this exist. The wagon is, in the first place, overworked. In the next place it is cumbersome and last, but by no means least, it advertises its proximity from a distance of several blocks. Electric cars are slow. In nearly every instance where officers have been called to capture crooks, the crooks have had plenty of time to escape.

The appearance of Murderer Fred Cook in Los Angeles last Sunday showed the value of motorcycles. Officers Holm, Berchold and King were the first men to answer the delayed call. Had that call come at once the officers would probably have gotten their man.

Profiting by this experience Capt. Birdhead hit upon the idea of getting emergency motorcycles. The two old Indian machines, formerly in service, have been sent to the shop for overhauling. Monday they will be at the central station, ready for duty. Wagon men and other men on station duty will be instructed as to their use.

DAYLIGHT THIEF GETS LOOT.

A daylight burglar operating in the suburbs of the city broke into J. H. Hannah's home on Compton avenue, near Watts, yesterday morning. He entered through a window and got a watch, a fob, three rings and a revolver. The city police were notified to look out for the plunder.

BRUISED BY A CAR.

John Green, a Salt Lake City mining man, was knocked down and severely bruised by a south-bound Moneta-avenue car at Sixth and Main streets yesterday morning. He had been trying to board a north-bound car and stepped away to the other track as the south-bound car came along.

BIG HOTEL PLANNED.

Another. At the end of the hall room is a commodious stage which will be equipped with scenery, and all other paraphernalia required in the presentation of dramatic or operatic entertainment.

In one of the front wings on the ground floor is a large library, and in the basement of the "old folks," and in the basement of the "old folks," the entire above ground, and because of the slope of the hill, will be a playground for the children. In the basement of this wing there will be a swimming pool.

The decorations throughout the building will be suggestive of the simple life. Through the main lobby, the women and women's lounging rooms, and the sun parlor, the upper walls will be of a luscious poppy yellow and golden brown, with delicate ornaments in pale green. The ballroom will be decorated in gold and two tones of color, ivory and pale green.

The main dining-room will be, probably, the most original in its decoration of any rooms used for a similar purpose in the United States. The high ceilings will be flooded with light through stained glass windows, and at night will be illuminated by incandescent lights producing a translucent effect with an alabaster glow.

The buffet is a circular room with a round ceiling. The sides and walls of this room will be covered with mosaics, behind which the electric light will be concealed.

Walking around the building are terraces of extraordinary width. In large an expanse of territory is owned by the building that any one, coming from a given point and walking around the entire building, will have covered nearly three-quarters of a mile before he again reaches his starting point.

The grounds comprise about twenty acres. In front is a hillside, covered with graceful orange groves, sloping into the valley beyond, while on the side are deep ravines.

AN OLD-CHURISHED PLAN. The plans were drawn by and the building is being erected under the supervision of Charles F. Whittlesey of Los Angeles. Gen. Westworth, the host and soul of the project, is daily on the grounds, suggesting such changes as he finds necessary from time to time and inspiring the workmen to increased energy.

On the place of the Westworth, were built out by Gen. and Mrs. Westworth years ago, both of them having spent much time in designing what the hotel will be a model hotel. "I have built many hotels in my day," says Gen. Westworth, "but this will be the last. I intend to make it my masterpiece and nothing has been left to me but to complete it. The location of the building I consider ideal. The judgment has been backed up by J. B. Huntington, who pointed out to me as his preference over the location of the hotel, the fact that it is surrounded by a park many acres in extent."

On the new hotel is at a distance of about a mile from the city, and for that reason it is always well served by the city's plumbing, sewer and gas lines, and has a very healthy house.

BRILLIANT CAREER ENDS IN SORROW.

FAMOUS PUBLISHER DIES AFTER PITIFUL STRUGGLE.

Man Who Gave the Encyclopedia Britannica and Other Valuable Publications to the World Passes Away Here Without a Word of Comfort from Former Wife.

Alexander Belford, one-time millionaire publisher and known throughout the United States, died yesterday morning in the home of Mrs. Fielda, a private nurse, No. 214 Eastlake avenue, and practically penniless.

His end was the result of a stroke of paralysis and for the last week or so he had been lingering in the Good Samaritan Hospital. Tuesday he was removed to a private residence.

The sad end of Belford's life, his separation from his wife, his loss of fortune and his complete cast-off by the majority of Chicago, is a story of early success and affluence and then of poverty and the final acquiescence of the man's appetites over his judgment and the resultant falling away of the friends of his higher estate.

For the last year or so he had been in Los Angeles and had been known to a certain extent by the society of his wife, who was a Montgomery of Chicago.

When he learned that the end was near he requested that his former wife be informed. She wired a reply that she was sorry but could do nothing. He requested to see his children again but was refused.

Belford was an agnostic and his dying request was that he be buried without ceremony or flowers of any kind. Robert Belford, a brother of the deceased, who also lives in Los Angeles, expected to take charge of the funeral services and that the body would be taken to Chicago.

The financial reverses in Chicago, which came to Los Angeles, became a constant reminder to Belford. He sided in the planning and construction of the town of Venice.

Just eighteen months ago his wife, Mrs. Helen M. McNally, prior to her marriage to Belford, left her husband on the plea that he was intemperate and almost imprudent.

His description seemed to increase Belford's dependency and inability to meet the adverse tide of financial matters. About one year ago he attempted to make arrangements with his wife that he could see his children, but this was made that he planned to control the control of the $100,000 that had been inherited from her father, Mr. McNally, the Chicago multi-millionaire publisher.

Belford's every means at his disposal to remove this impression from a public statement that he never accepted one cent of the money of his wife under any conditions. This was not sufficient to prevent between the two seemed to be a permanent rift.

When Belford was summoned to the McNallys' home at San Juan Capistrano, there is a palatial summer home on valuable ranch property in this place and Belford's situation there.

The furniture in the house was in order to make the sister, Mrs. Belford, leave. This action separated the McNallys from Belford.

Belford was born in Ireland, in 1854, and brought to California when a child. In 1888, after a few years' experience and while endeavoring to start the Chicago News Company, which was made a branch of the Chicago News Company. Four years later he was in London and in the management of the standard of the value of giving a premium with the paper.

After this Belford's company had a string of 100 dollars in the new concern, but through a change in the new concern, he was forced to go into the manufacturing machinery, but he and his wife were lacking and he failed. He came to Los Angeles in an effort to mend his shattered.

PLUMBERS' STRIKE FAILS.

Closed Shop Idea Given Up by Union Fanatics.

"Express" Ditched by Spreading of the Rails.

Attempt at Wonderful Flip-flop a Fiasco.

The "striking" members of the Plumbers' Union have returned to work. They have forewarned their demand for the closed shop and a half holiday on pay, and accepted the conditions laid down by the master plumbers, which absolutely reject the closed shop and establish the open shop firmly in the city.

Yesterday at noon the plumbers ended the "recent unpleasantness" in the building trade by becoming history, and every working plumber in the city was back at his old job.

The return was under the old conditions, with the exception that a half holiday has been granted without pay. Also an advance in wages of 50 cents per day was granted, but it is stated that this part of the working conditions will not go into effect until the contracts now held by the master plumbers have been completed. Then another conference with the union will be held and the matter settled.

The closed shop part of the union's demands was rejected early by the employers, and a counter proposition, including the advance in wages mentioned, was offered.

The tottemites, puffed up with belief in their own "power," rejected this offer and quit work.

This action brought out the fact that the master plumbers are of the same mind to a man, and their ranks looked solid to the wavering tottemites. They made plain to the unionists that the closed shop and half holiday on pay were out of the question.

Then yesterday the union men returned and asked the employers to repeat their first offer. This was done, and in a trice the "strike" was over.

Yesterday at 4 o'clock Secretary Kilne of the master plumbers, who has acted as the union agent for them during the last few days, announced that every contractor connected with the Builders' Exchange has a full complement of men. He said that no more men are needed.

CONTRACTORS LOSE NOTHING. The contractors have not lost one day's work on account of the attempt of the union agitators to interfere with their business.

Some of them say there would not have been even the slight annoyance that was had. It is not been for the attempts of the Evening Express to enlarge untruthfully upon what occurred during each of the last four days.

On Labor Day the Express came out with glaring headlines telling of the presence of "15,000 of labor's hosts" in the parade when in reality there were but 245 marching—including women. A revelation of the first edition of the same paper the same day lopped 5000 off this wild estimate.

This was but the starter. On the same page the paper shouted out the untruthful statement that "if the union demands are refused 3000 men will be affected." It goes on to tell how the bricklayers, plasterers and other organizations who had not thought of joining the disgruntled carpenters, were also out of work.

The truth of the matter is that there were but 200 men affected by the impotent strike, and not one contractor in the city was compelled to stop work on even a small job.

JUST LOPPED OFF A CYPER. The next afternoon, after The Times had published the exact conditions, the Express saw a great light and blatantly stated that but 200 men were affected. Instead of the 3000 of the previous day.

The paper daily printed the rapid statement of an agitator, Sexton, who acts as "press agent" for the carpenters' organization. The man's words read like the advertisement of a fire sale, and the Express heralded these erroneous expressions abroad to delude the working carpenter, the employer and the public alike.

Wednesday the Express reached the heights of its astute statements about the carpenters' strike. It stated that a general strike was imminent, and that work on many buildings had suspended.

The fact that six men working for Paul Haupt on the Earl building had stopped work probably caused the statement in the Express office.

Thursday dawned bright and sunny and the Express climbed upon the other side of the fence and announced in black type: "Building Not Halting by Strike." The sheet continued to show lucidly why the building operations were not halted.

On Friday, just to complete the hedge-podge, the paper comes out with the statement that the carpenters say the old wage scale is a thing of the past, conveying the entirely wrong impression that a brand-new one was made.

The "strike news" of the Express for the five days can be summarized thus: Monday—There is going to be a strike; Tuesday—There is no strike; Wednesday—General strike imminent; Thursday—No more of a strike after all; Friday—(the first truthful statement) Situation hazy. Don't know much about it, really.

To a person informed of the true conditions the acrobatic ability of the Express to flip from side to side is nothing but amusing, but the contractors say that the extravagant statements had a tendency to cause unrest among the workmen.

PRINCIPLE WINS. CALHOUN'S RINGING MESSAGE. Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads of San Francisco, yesterday sent a ringing reply to the telegram sent him by F. J. Zechandelaar, secretary of the Los Angeles Citizens Alliance, in which he was congratulated upon his courageous stand for American principles in the recent carpenters' strike. Mr. Calhoun wired as follows:

"I thank you for your telegram. The principles of individual liberty and industrial freedom will always win when supported with courage. In the unfortunate strike here there was further involved the principles of honor and integrity, and my conviction is strengthened that an appeal to the moral sense and integrity of the American people will always find a response."

Mr. Zechandelaar said that the response, ringing as it does with the courage of the man in his own convictions, shows clearly that a new era has dawned for the union-ridden city of San Francisco, and that a leader fitting the name has arisen who will guide the long-suffering people out of their subservience to the tottemites.

MORE CONGRATULATIONS. The Founders and Employers' Association of Los Angeles, through the president, Fred L. Baker, yesterday

send a congratulatory message to President Calhoun of the United Railroads, saying:

"The Founders and Employers' Association of Los Angeles congratulates you on the advance you have made thus far in your stand for a principle. You should have the hearty cooperation of every organization and business house on this Coast. We highly commend your straightforward methods and wish you an early and successful termination of your troubles."

TELLS OF JAPAN'S PROGRESS. Col. W. H. Holabird Address Society Members on Railroad Extension in Far East.

Col. W. H. Holabird of Los Angeles, who returned recently from an extensive tour of inspection throughout Manchuria and Japan in behalf of certain railroad interests, addressed the monthly meeting of the Engineers' and Architects' Society last night, which was held in a leading restaurant.

Mr. Holabird spoke in glowing terms of the possibilities for railroad extension in the Far East and dwelt upon the alacrity with which the Japanese were seizing upon the most advantageous points for railroads and the ease with which they accommodated themselves to whatever conditions they encountered in Manchuria.

In reference to the Japanese railroads Mr. Holabird stated that every one was making money and that the Japanese people, notwithstanding the short time they have had railroads in their country, were among the greatest travelers he had ever encountered.

He pointed out the facility with which railroads could be constructed in Japan, both on account of the cheapness of labor and the cheapness of material. He said that everywhere he went he was accorded the warmest welcome and encountered among the leading bankers, merchants and railroad men of the country, Japanese well-to-do and western standards were as fully civilized as any person encountered in England or the United States.

Mr. Holabird spent some time in describing the purely picturesque quality of his trip and the quaint things he saw. He described interestingly some of the irrigation schemes the Japanese and Chinese had established in the dryer portions of Manchuria.

The talk, which was a post-prandial one, was intensely interesting to the members of the society present and his conclusion that the Japanese were a people of the future was well received.

Mr. Holabird received a vote of thanks and appreciation.

During the business meeting of the society that preceded the serving of the menu a resolution was adopted inviting the engineers, James D. Schuyler, John R. Freeman and Frederick Stearns, who will shortly make an investigation of the Owens River Project, to be guests of honor of the society during their stay in this city.

WILL SOON CAPTURE COOK. Deputy U. S. Marshal Bert Franklin headed a posse on a hot chase after Murderer Fred D. Cook yesterday. The pursuers were on Cook's trail late into the night.

Franklin, who was for a long time a deputy in Sheriff White's office, learned yesterday morning where Cook had been seen near Compton. The posse was organized at 10 o'clock and hurried to the place, but before he could follow the fresh trail, had to come back to the city on Federal business. When this was concluded he returned with a number of officers.

The posse worked until midnight. At that hour they had not come upon Cook. In the meantime it was learned that Cook has been near Compton two days at least, living by stealing melons and milk cows. Cook visited the home of a deputy sheriff and yesterday begged a meal. This he got. The deputy was not in.

The present determined effort to capture Cook gave better promise last night to yield success than any which have yet been made.

JOKERS' BORRY JOKE. All Furniture in House Is Turned Upside Down and Police Are Called.

Practical Jokers entered the home of Mrs. F. E. Hanna at No. 560 Ruth avenue early last evening and literally turned the inside of the house upside down. Mrs. Hanna is away and her son, B. C. Hanna, left the house about 7 o'clock. When he returned, he found that the front door had been tampered with. Fearing that robbers were in the house, Hanna called the police, and detectives responded.

"In Hoc Signo Vincas" was printed on a newspaper, which was taken out the front door on the inside. Every piece of furniture was taken out of the room in which it belonged and taken to another. All the beds were taken down, contents of closets were strewn about the house in a ruthless manner, and the vandals had gone so far as to remove all the electric light globes and hide them.

HURLED FROM BICYCLE. Rendered Unconscious by Collision With Fire Department Wagon Responding to Alarm.

As Hoseman Cox in the Fire Chief's wagon dashed down West Second street into South Broadway about 7 o'clock last evening, the wagon collided with a bicycle ridden by Mrs. C. B. Gibbs of No. 619 East Washington street. She was hurled to the pavement and rendered unconscious. After being removed to the office of a nearby physician, Mrs. Gibbs was revived. Her injuries were slight.

The fire to which the department was called was at the Gilbert lodging-house at No. 218 South Broadway. The flame from a gas jet caught on some paper trimmings and for several minutes there was quite a blaze. The flames were extinguished before the department apparatus arrived.

WOMAN MAY BE DEMENTED. Mrs. Virginia Maguire, who was shot in the forehead two years ago by a jealous lover, was removed yesterday from her home at Avenue 17 and the Arroyo Seco to the County Hospital. She will be examined as to her sanity. It is said that dementia has resulted from the wound. The man who did the shooting is now serving time in the penitentiary, according to the police.

CHINESE HAS DARK RECORD. Ju Lock, a Chinese, whose battered wife was rescued by the police ten days ago, is a San Quentin ex-convict. Deputy U. S. Marshal Bert Franklin, who has been investigating the case, learned this yesterday and got from the police department a photograph of Lock. The man served two years in the penitentiary for grand larceny, and was released just prior to coming to Los Angeles more than a year ago.

GANG'S STAR THIEF NABBED. In Joe Lavro, arrested yesterday by Patrolman Leon, the police say they have the leader of a gang of young burglars who have been stealing copper wire, brass fittings and similar material. Lavro is charged with the burglary of the Edison warehouse, and has confessed his guilt. In this robbery Lavro got a large quantity of new copper wire.

MAY CONVICT HIM SOME TIME. George Powers, known to the police as a pal of Irving Long, the ex-highwayman, had bill passer and convict, is in jail again. Powers was arrested yesterday for passing a check for $100,000, a week on a charge of passing worthless Confederate bank notes. He and Long are said to have operated in the work before the latter's sensational break for liberty landed him back in the penitentiary.
